בתי קברות עם קברי צדיקים

1) Very old בית הקברות (where the פני יהושע, הפלאה, מחנה לוי, ר' נתן אדלר ואמו של החת"ס lie): Battonstrasse which is in centre of town near "Konstablerwache". Entrance opposite AOK building. Oldest קברים from end of 13. Century. Over 6000 מצבות were deciphered and published by Rav Horowitz at beginning of 19. Century and about another 2000 were deciphered more recently. Note how many מצבות were destroyed. The מצבות של הגדולים are opposite the entrance but the accurate site of each גדול is not known - it is somewhere on that ביה"ק.

Note the thousands of little metal plaques on outside of wall of בית הקברות each of which is about a Frankfurt Yid who was murdered by the Nazis. Also note "Gedenktafel" on the place of Borneplatz Shul nearby which was burned down in Kristallnacht.

Excavations of the old Ghetto can be viewed nearby in the cellar of the building of the "Stadtwerke". It also contains a small Jewish museum with reconstructed remnants of the old Frankfurt Ghetto: Museum "Judengasse", Tel. 2977419. For detailed information speak to Herr Backhaus in main Jewish Museum Tel. (0049-69) 212 38804. There is a computer with interesting information about local Jewish history and derivatons of Jewish family names originating in Frankfurt - in German and English. There is also an exact miniature-model of old historic Frankfurt including the Yiddish Ghetto. Opening times: Mon.: closed the whole day. On Tues, Wed, Thurs, Fri.: open till 17.00. on Wed.: till 20.00.

Access to the בית הקברות: Can be reached by buses or underground. Ask for "Konstablerwache". Bus from Westend Shul is no. 36, starts at Feldbergstrasse (journey time: 30 min.). The בית הקברות is locked. Keys are available near-by in the above-mentioned Ghetto-museum against deposit of passport but it is closed on Mondays. They can also be borrowed against deposit of identity documents from: Herr Horowitz, (speaks Yiddish and Ivrit but not English) Neuer Juedischer Friedhof, Eckenheimer Landstr. 238 (when driving along, a פסוק is clearly visible outside this most recent בית הקברות and there is a small car-park.) Open approx. From 7.30 a.m. - 5.00 p.m. Tel: 561826 Fax: 5603693. (Motorway exit: Nordwestkreuz - Ernst Landmann-Strasse). In the בית הקברות the מצבות of the גדולים are opposite the entrance on the far side, surrounded by a small stone wall. The מצבות are not on the exact קבורה. The exact קברים are not known. The sign indicating מקום קבורה של אם החת"ס is to the right of the entrance, however, it is doubtful whether this is the exact place. Nearby is the shopping centre of Frankfurt. Further along this road called "Zeil" towards the zoo there is the site of Reb Yakov Rosenheim's office, where אגודת ישראל was founded.

There is a "Denkmal" on the site of the Shul of the pre-war Austrittsgemeinde on the Friedberger Anlage.

2) Old בית הקברות used in the last century (where the הרב הורוביץ והרב, הגרש"ז ברייער, הרב הירש, הגרש"ר והגרש"ר lie): Rad-Beil-Strasse (tell Taxi: Near Burgerhospital). Main entrance is very prominent, but continue along to the right of the main entrance for a few hundred meters for an open gate leading directly to the Hirsch-community Beis Hakevoros. The gate is closed roughly at 5-6 p.m. R. Hirsch's Kever is along the main path where it meets the path coming in the other direction. A plan of the בית הקברות can be seen after the main entrance in which the famous קברים are marked. (For the Stoliner Rebbe and Rav Hirsch, turn to the right after the entrance and walk along for about. 3 minutes until you reach the breach in the wall separating the בית הקברות of the general community from that of the Austrittsgemeinde, enter through the breach and walk on the main path to the left until you reach Rav Hirsch's Kever, then walk back a little and turn to the left until you see the Stoliner Rebbe's Kever which has iron bar around it.)

3) Site of Old I.R.G. Shul of Hirsch-Community (which was burned on Kristallnacht) in Friedberger Anlage. How to get there: After visiting the very old ביה"ק carry on along the Battonstrasse, cross straight over Langestrasse, turn left into next road called Friedberger Anlage. The section concerned is before the Urturmchen. It is a Bunker which was built by the Nazis on the site of the destroyed Shul.

4) Jewish Museum: Is in the renovated old Rothschild building along the riverside. Contains interesting detailed model of old Frankfurt Ghetto and of the entire town with the Ghetto. Note that the coffee is not kosher. The bookshop in the building specializes in books of Jewish interest, including Holocaust etc. in several languages. Tel 21235000
